

MODEL QUESTION PAPER 1
HABITAT TECHNOLOGY

Part A

I. Answer all questions in one word or one sentence.

1. Define slum.
2. Define zoning.
3. Name a material used in the vernacular architecture of Kerala
4. Define microclimate
5. Sound intensity is measured in _____.
6. Define softscape in landscape design.
7. Define patio.
8. Name a physical quantity in interior design.
9. Munsell scale is used to measure _____

3*8 = 24 marks

PART B

II. Answer any eight questions from the following, Each question carries 3 marks.

1. Mention the different types of settlement patterns.
2. Differentiate between exterior and interior space.
3. Explain the concept of urban heat island.
4. List any three thermal indices used to measure human comfort.
5. Identify the components of daylight factor.
6. Differentiate between warm lighting and cool lighting.
7. Discuss the classification of furniture based on style.
8. Differentiate between turf and lawn.
9. List three hardscape elements.
10. Identify three characteristics of traditional home gardens in Kerala.

3*8 = 24 marks

PART C

Answer ALL questions. Each question carries 7 marks.

III. Differentiate between regular and irregular forms.

OR

IV. Discuss the characteristics of slums.

V. Classify towns based on the evolution.

OR

VI. Explain the functions of ventilation.

VII. Explain the phenomenon of global wind movement with a sketch.

OR

VIII. Discuss the factors affecting indoor airflow.

IX. Explain principles of landscape design.

OR

X. Sketch the furniture plan for a bedroom of size 4m x 3m based considering the principles of anthropometry. The positions of the door, windows and attached toilet may be assumed.

XI. Draw the concept sketch for a Mughal garden.

OR

XII. Draw the concept sketch for an English garden.

XIII. Explain primary, secondary and complementary colours using colour wheel.

OR

XIV. Discuss the modern materials for various components of interior space for design and decoration.

MODEL QUESTION PAPER 2
HABITAT TECHNOLOGY

Part A

I. Answer all questions in one word or one sentence.

1. _____ is the natural environment in which a particular species of plants and animals lives.
2. Define Linear settlement pattern.
3. Define Tropical climate.
4. The winds that blow east to west just north and south of the equator are called _____ winds.
5. A unifying movement characterised by a patterned repetition or alteration of formal elements or motifs in the same or a modified form is _____
6. Define Hardscape in landscape architecture.
7. Define Ergonomics.
8. Define Positive space in interior design.
9. Name a plant species commonly found in Kerala which can be used for landscape design.

9*1 = 9 Marks

PART B

II. Answer any eight questions from the following, Each question carries 3 marks.

1. Discuss the concept of mass housing.
2. Explain three principles of architectural composition.
3. Distinguish between macro climate and micro climate.
4. Describe the use of sun path diagram.
5. List three phytogeographic regions of India.
6. Calculate the quantity of air flow for a room having a vertical distance of 3.0 m between the centres of the inlets and outlets. The average indoor temperature is 30°C and the outdoor temperature is 25°C .
7. Explain three principles of landscape design.
8. Discuss structural space modulation techniques.
9. Identify three different types of fabric and their uses for modifying interiors in interior design.
10. List three attached qualities in interior design.

3*8 = 24 marks

PART C

Answer ALL questions. Each question carries 7 marks.

III. Identify the main characteristics of the Vernacular architecture of Kerala

OR

IV. Explain the principles of town planning.

V. Explain factors affecting local climate

OR

VI. What are the functions of ventilation?

VII. Identify the causes of slums

OR

VIII. Discuss methods of controlling noise

IX. Explain elements in landscape design.

OR

X. Explain principles of interior design.

XI. Draw and explain the activity relationship diagram for a kitchen in a residential building (any layout).

OR

XII. Illustrate the plan of a rectangular dining area for six persons using the principles of anthropometry. The shape of the table may be assumed.

XIII. Explain the elements of a French garden.

OR

XIV. Illustrate the elements of a Japanese garden with the use of a concept sketch/plan.

