

Program: Diploma in Hotel Management and Catering Technology
Course Code: 2472	Course Title: Food and Beverage Service II
Semester: 2	Credits: 3
Course Category: Foundation Course
Periods per week: 3 (L:3 T:0 P:0)	Periods per semester: 45

Course Objectives:

Develop a comprehensive understanding of restaurant and room service operations, covering aspects such as table setting, napkin folding, various service methods, receiving guests, social skills, sideboard arrangement, and the differences between centralized, decentralized, and mobile room service, including trolley and tray setups and room service menus. Acquire proficiency in restaurant reservation systems, mastering techniques for taking reservations, receiving guests, and methods of service for different dining formats such as buffet, banquet, and special services, while also gaining knowledge about non-alcoholic beverages, including classification, origins, manufacturing processes, types, brands, preparation, and service of various beverages.

Course Prerequisites: Nil

Course Outcomes:

On completion of the course, the student will be able to:

CO n	Description	Duration (Hours)	Cognitive Level
CO1	Students will understand the intricacies of restaurant and room service, including table setting, napkin folding, various service methods, receiving guests, social skills, arranging sideboards, and the differences between centralized, decentralized, and mobile room service, including trolley and tray setups and room service menus.	10	Understanding

CO2	Students will become proficient in restaurant reservation systems, mastering the techniques for taking reservations, receiving guests, and the methods of service for different dining formats such as buffet, banquet, and special services.	10	Understanding
CO3	Learners will gain comprehensive knowledge of non-alcoholic beverages, including their classification into nourishing, stimulating, and refreshing drinks, with a focus on the origins, manufacturing processes, types, brands, preparation, and service of tea, coffee, cocoa, malted beverages, milk-based drinks, juices, soft drinks, mineral, and tonic waters.	10	Understanding
CO4	Students will acquire an understanding of tobacco, including its history, processing methods for cigarettes and cigars, and the correct storage and service techniques for cigars and cigarettes. Participants will learn the necessity and functions of a good control system, including the food and beverage control cycle, cash handling equipment, theft control procedures, and effective recordkeeping practices. Students will gain insights into alcoholic beverages, with a focus on the introduction, definition, classification, and production of different types, including beer (bottled, canned, and draught), ciders, perry, and sake, along with their storage requirements.	15	Understanding

CO – PO Mapping

Course Outcomes	PO1	PO2	PO3	PO4	PO5	PO6	PO7
CO1	3
CO2	3
CO3					3
CO4				3

3-Strongly mapped, 2-Moderately mapped, 1-Weakly mapped

Course Outline

Module Outcomes	Description	Duration (Hours)	Cognitive Level
CO1	Students will understand the intricacies of restaurant and room service, including table setting, napkin folding, various service methods, receiving guests, social skills, arranging sideboards, and the differences between centralized, decentralized, and mobile room service, including trolley and tray setups and room service menus.
M1.01	Restaurant service and room service - Restaurant service-laying tables and different napkin fold-forms and methods of service-	3	Understanding
M1.02	Receiving the guest and social skills service at a table- arranging side boardroom service-types of room service centralized,	3	Apply
M1.03	Decentralized and mobile trolley and Tray set –up House rules of room service-room service menus	2	Understanding
M1.04	Taking orders and presenting bills.	2	Apply
Contents: Being familiar with food served in Restaurant and Room service areas.
CO2	Students will become proficient in restaurant reservation systems, mastering the techniques for taking reservations, receiving guests, and the methods of service for different dining formats such as buffet, banquet, and special services.
M2.01	Restaurant reservation systems –Taking reservations, receiving the guest.	3	Apply
M2.02	Methods of service	2	Apply
M2.03	Buffet Banquet Service Function Catering 1. Factors to plan different buffets 2. Area requirement for buffets 3. planning and organizing buffets 4. sequences of foods to be displayed in the buffets 5. Types of buffets, (full, sit down, finger, fork, cold buffets)	3	Apply

	6. breakfast buffets 7. selection of equipment in buffets
M2.04	Banquets protocol 1. Table plan and arrangements 2. Special area requirement for special service 3. Toasting events and its procedure for the special service	2	Apply
Contents : Restaurant Reservation Systems, Special Service.
CO3	Learners will gain comprehensive knowledge of non-alcoholic beverages, including their classification into nourishing, stimulating, and refreshing drinks, with a focus on the origins, manufacturing processes, types, brands, preparation, and service of tea, coffee, cocoa, malted beverages, milk-based drinks, juices, soft drinks, mineral, and tonic waters
M3.01	Classification-nourishing, stimulating, refreshing Origin, Manufacture, Classification	4	Understanding
M3.02	Types of juices-soft-drinks-brands-mineral and tonic water (popular brands)	3	Understanding
M3.03	Preparation and Service of various non alcoholic beverages	3	Understanding
Contents: Serving non-alcoholic beverages including their classification, service of tea, coffee, juices etc.
CO4	Students will acquire an understanding of tobacco, including its history, processing methods for cigarettes and cigars, and the correct storage and service techniques for cigars and cigarettes. Participants will learn the necessity and functions of a good control system, including the food and beverage control cycle, cash handling equipment, theft control procedures, and effective recordkeeping practices. Students will gain insights into alcoholic beverages, with a focus on the introduction, definition, classification, and production of different types, including beer (bottled, canned, and draught), ciders, perry, and sake, along with their storage requirements.
M4.01	Tobacco - History-processing of tobacco for cigarettes and cigar-. Storage and service of cigars and cigarettes	3	Understanding
M4.02	Simple Control Systems - Necessity of a good control system-functions of a control system ,	3	Understanding
M4.03	Food and beverages control cycle-Cash handling equipment-theft control procedures - Record keeping	7	Understanding

M4.04	Alcoholic Beverages - Introduction & Definition, Classification, Production Fermentation process, Distillation process, Classification with examples Wine definition, history, types of wine, colors of wines, Wine-producing countries, and famous wines Spirits, Aperitifs, Liqueurs, Bar management, Bar Layout, Bar stock
M4.05	Definition-Sherry, Ciders, Sake	2
Contents : Understanding of tobacco and its history, storage and service of cigars and cigarettes. Types of Beer. Control Systems, Alcoholic beverages

Text / Reference

T/R	Book Title/Author
T1	Modern Restaurant Service- John Fuller, Hutchinson
T2	Food and Beverage Service- Lillicrap& Cousins, ELBs
R1	Profitable Menu Planning – John Drysale

Online Resources

Sl.No	Website Link
1	https://www.scribd.com/document/698787445/Exploring-on-SAKECIDER-PERRY